

Stanley Theodore Jones

September 10, 1955 - May 25, 2009

Our beloved Stanley Theodore Jones was born October 10, 1955 in Henrico County to Blanche Willis Jones and the late Russell "Frank" Jones. At six twelve am, Monday, May 25, 2009, the Lord called the spirit of Stanley home to be one of his newest angels. He was preceded in death by his dear sister, Janice Willis and nephew, Dion Willis. Stanley accepted our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at an early age at Pilgrim Journey Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia. He knew the bible very well and read it faithfully. Throughout his illness he always said it was all in God's hands and knew that his faith would sustain him. He attended Henrico County public schools and enlisted in the United States Army after high school and received an honorable discharge. Stanley was a kind-hearted man that worked in landscaping and enjoyed watching sports. He also loved to sing and be around his family. He leaves to cherish his memory, loving mother, Blanche Jones; sister, Paulette Clarke; three brothers, Russell, Kennon and Frank Jones; three nephews, two nieces, six aunts, two uncles and a host of relatives and friends. He'll be truly missed and never forgotten.

“ I would like to express my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to the time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. Losing someone you love is not natural, in fact God's Word tells us that death is the 'last enemy'. What a wonderful day it will be when our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah by means of his son The Christ brings our enemy to nothing! 1Corinthians 15:26)##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from that wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that loving hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
