“ Monica and Crystal, Words can never express or address the pain one feels when they suffer a loss such as the one you are experiencing. But I want you to know that I am so very proud of you and how you took so good care of Ms. Minnie and now your mom. When you look back, I'm sure you'll have no regrets about the committment you displayed during both of their illnesses. Continue to trust in the Lord, as he will direct your path. Find comfort in knowing that your mom and grandma now have their wings and as they soar they'll be taking care of one another once again.##imported-begin##Kim Chambers-Labat##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.###imported-begin###Sophia Briscoe###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.###imported-begin###Carter###imported-end##
