

Stephane D. Johnson

December 29, 1989 - April 8, 2023

Stephane was born and raised in the City of Baltimore. He attended Edmondson Westside Senior High School then went to serve his country. In 2009 he joined the United States Army under Commander and Chief Barack Obama during the Afghanistan War. He proudly served as a Military Intelligence Analyst until 2012 when he entered the Army National Guard. He was stationed in Korea, Arizona, Texas, Iraq, Afghanistan and Kuwait before his discharge in 2016.. Stephan went on to work as a Security Officer.

Growing up, he was the type of child who easily made friends from all walks of life. His parents would often come home to a house full of his friends playing video games, engaged in wrestling or raiding the fridge. He had a carefree way of life, nothing got him down for long. He was inspirational to others and adored his family and friends. His mother referred to him as the smartest person she knew. Anyone who knew him, knew of his consuming passion for video games, sour candy, and the Asian Culture; to include the food , music, and Anime. He loved graphic novels, epic fantasy books and trips to the zoo,

Stephan completed his life on April 8th, 2023 at the age of 33. He leaves to recall his memory; his parents, his siblings,; to include his partner in crime, Shakerra Simmons, his little brother and sparring partner, Briaun Robinson, and his baby sister Jakhiya Alston. He cherished his nieces Zariah Simmons, Mia and Kayla Brown and his nephew Jacob Brown and Brayden Robinson.

His grandma Barbara Mathews and Grandad Theodore Gibson. His many Aunts, Uncles. Cousins, and a band of Brothers and friends.

Stephan, Uncle Steffy, Envy or Bilal; as he was know to answer; would encourage all his many fiends and family, to not mourn him too long, or be sad in his absence. Rather celebrate the fact that he lived life on his terms, traveled the world, met people of all cultures, love you all to life, express remorse for his shortcomings, and enjoy his journey amongst the land and the living, Stephan didn't die he simply completed his life.
