

Stephanie Ball

September 5, 1952 - July 11, 2013

STEPHANIE L. BALL, daughter of the late Authur Ball Sr. and Doris Ball, was born on September 5, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on July 11, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Stephanie was baptized at a very young age. “Stuff,” as her family affectionately called her, showed a tremendous and unconditional love for her children. At times Stephanie had to take on the mother role for her siblings. She enjoyed every minute of it.

Stephanie had a remedy for every ailment from chicken pox to hot flashes. Stephanie represented the true meaning of love. She had a petite frame, but a very big heart.

Stephanie enjoyed her music, especially her love ballads. Her nieces and nephews would mock her old dance moves at family gatherings and better believe, she would correct them if they weren't doing her moves right. Stephanie was often saddened when talking about her younger siblings that went home before her. Now you have your wings, no more pain, no more suffering. Your brother and sisters are waiting for you in heaven with open arms: Cookieman, Leany and Tee have chosen this award for you. “The Best Big Sister Ever”. It will be presented to you by yours truly, your Mom, Doris Ball. Please accept this award on your family's behalf. Congratulations Stephanie, may you continue to rest in paradise. Stephanie will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her.

She leaves to mourn: son, Sean Coleman; daughter, Dominique Ball; two special daughters, Squeaky and Shecona; two loving friends, Iva and Marilyn; grandchildren, Durrell, Dontranaé, Shawnék, Dontae, Danshae, Dearira and Devyn; great-grandchildren, Danshaé and Parris; brother, Sheldon Ball; two sisters, Kim Ball and Demetria Jarvis; brother-in-law, Reginald Jarvis; and a host of other relatives and friends.
