

Stephanie V. Chandler

November 18, 1963 - February 23, 2021

STEPHANIE CHANDLER, daughter of the late Coretta Cain, was born on November 18, 1963 in Baltimore Maryland. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

Stephanie was a happy-go-lucky spirit who never judged anyone and truly cared about people. She was willing to help anyone she could even if they didn't deserve it. Stephanie was a loving person who always saw the best in those who didn't even see it in themselves. Stephanie loved her sons and was so boastful of the men they became. She had the warmest smile and loved to laugh. She was a strong Christian woman who always had a way to make someone feel special.

Stephanie (aka MAMA as her best friend/granddaughter called her) enjoyed the basic things in life. Over the past 4 years her favorite thing to do was spend time and spoil her granddaughter Dakota. These two had a bond that was inseparable, full of fun; and sometimes it was hard to tell who was the adult and who was the child with the amount of fun they would have. Stephanie enjoyed watching her wrestling, comic Marvel movies, boxing matches, Supernatural, and other good television shows. She always loved to partner up with her son John and have some fun at playing spades. Simple at its best her favorite place to eat was Golden Corral where you would get the most variety for your money spent. Overall Stephanie enjoyed time with family the most, especially holidays where the family and friends would gather over her sister Buttercup's house for food, games, and singing. She didn't have much but she was grateful for everything she had.

Stephanie leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Geraldine; niece, Andrea; six sons, Lamont, John, David, James, Gerald and Emery; grandchildren, Dakota and others; and a host of other relatives and friends.
