

Stephanie Priscilla Franklyn

February 17, 1941 - January 27, 2023

Good Day Everyone, Our family welcomes you and is very happy that you could join us in celebrating the life of STEPHANIE FRANKLYN, who is also known by her family as “Aunty Fannie”.

My grandmother was born in the village of Santa Cruz, Trinidad. As a young girl, she had many enjoyable days playing cricket and pitching marbles, and sometimes you could find her on top a tree picking its fruit. As she grew up she had the responsibility of taking care of her younger siblings, combing their hair and sending them off to school.

She always had the desire of learning to sew professionally. Some days you could see her sewing something by hand; you would think it was from a sewing machine. She had her first child at a early age, that is my mother, who she calls “Heather”, followed by Ingrid and then Christopher who is now deceased. Sometime during her life, she worked at a convent in Port of Spain. By traveling to and fro is where she met her husband Hadrian Franklyn, bringing forth her last child Gillian Franklyn.

They migrated to the USA where she worked very hard making a comfortable home for her family. She loved cooking many different dishes for her family which they enjoyed very much. She loved all her grandchildren, especially James and Jasmin who both lived with her. She then welcomed one of her great-grandchildren Jace, taking care of him as her own child. He will surely miss her.

Stephanie Franklyn displayed the fruitage of God's Spirit by showing loving kindness to all being peaceful, having patience, goodness and full faith in God. We will miss her dearly. She has departed leaving her footprints on our heart. Rest in peace, my grandmother Stephanie Franklyn.
