“ To the family, Step, as only I called her was the joy of my life. I love her and always will. We never made it to the altar, but I know God answer my prayer of years ago and made her my wife in his site. We were married in our hearts and our hearts are joined forever. Witout her my life will never be complete. We were a family .I will keep every promise that I made to her. I love her and as you all saw she loved me and I will make sure that I will always have her back, While she is in the arms of God, I will watch over her resting place, until I die. I really miss and Love you. ##imported-begin## Gerald Gregory Stansbury ##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Smith, I offer my sincere sympathy. The sorrow you are experiencing now will soon be alleviated. God promises at John 5:28, 29 that all those in the memorial tombs will soon hear his voice and come out. He also lets us know, at John 3:16 and John 17:3 what we must do to witness this grand event. May this wonderful promise give you comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
