

Stephanie Roberson

December 14, 1956 - July 14, 2021

Though her life's journey began, December 14, 1956 as a gift to her parents the late Frank Roberson & Lillian "Melvin" Roberson in Lumber Bridge, North Carolina, Stephanie Roberson gained her wings and ended her journey at home on the early morning of Wednesday, July 14th, 2021.

Stephanie's travel throughout the years often placed her in her hometown of North Carolina with a brief stop in Silver Spring, Maryland where she resided for a few years. But we know there was something about Baltimore City that couldn't keep Stephanie away. So there is where she resided for the majority of her teenage and adult years obtaining jobs at Bay Island, Montgomery Ward, Value Village Thrift, and Roe Clothing.

Stephanie's life served as a testimony of survival and perseverance through struggle. Her path led her through times of peace and times of turbulence; ultimately she stood strong through trials and tribulations to emerge as a woman of respect. It was always in her character to show generosity and willingness to help others even with having little of her own.

She leaves to continue her legacy:

2 children: Renard Roberson, Sr. (Tiffany) and Kimberly Roberson; 4 grandchildren: Renard Roberson, Jr., Kaelen Garnett, Reagan Roberson and Ayden Roberson, 4 great grandchildren: Jamari Roberson, Harley Roberson,

Harmony Roberson and Tanner Roberson, 4 siblings: James Waddell McIntyre (Brenda), Vilinia Roberson, MonaLisa Jones (Edward) and Lee Roberson, Sr. (michelle). In addition 2 special cousins: Sylvia Melvin & Bernice Wilson and close friends & supporters: Pastor James Woods, The Greater Bethesda Missionary Baptist Church family, Veronica Glenn, Rachel Johnson, and Raymond Dunkley and many other loving relatives and friends.

“ I am Reginald Calloway and Stephanie is my aunt. Love and miss her already. She nicknamed me Poopie lol She was looking for me in the store one day and yelled it across the store. Mind you I was about 23 lol too funny but only she could get away with it 🙏💜💋

“ Mommy,
This last week I've been sitting and asking why but today I sat and reminisced on what you taught me.... how to push through! Man, have I mastered it to fit my life. On Sunday, just like on Clifton, I'm cooking fried chicken, mac & cheese, and collards... im gonna even add sugar to them. I LOVE YOU MOMMY!

“ My husband and I were sadden to hear of the loss of Ms. Roberson. We never met her but knowing what she meant to Monalisa pains our heart. We encourage the family to let the memories of Stephanie bring comfort to all of the family. We all look to the time we can be reunited under better conditions as the Bible promises. To Renard, Tiffany and the entire Roberson family, I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to all of you. I am Tiffany 's mom and I am sorry that I didn't get to meet Ms. Stephanie, but my prayer is that all of you know that on behalf of the Walter's family we love you and our hearts are full and we are here for you all. Blessings .Donna Walter's Greensboro, NC
