“ Hello ! Scott's ! I would like to sent my sisterly love to the family of my spiritual sister Stephanie . Death broke the family circle of life for all of us when Stephanie died almost a year ago. Time goes by fast and the resurrection will come fast too. Just imagine the JOY we will have when many of our dear loved ones are resurrected. I am looking forward to that. The bible give so much comfort and hope, Stephanie look forward to the resurrection as John 5:28 say. May all the happy times and precious memories of Stephanie be a support for you all. My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Stephanie Teresa Scott, who was affectionately known as "Cat" or "Catbird," was my baby sister. She was a sweet, kind-hearted, caring, and compassionate individual who was well-liked by all who were fortunate to make her acquaintance. It's been a little over 2 months since she passed away, and part of me still can't believe it although I have learned to accept it, not question it, as well as continue to live my life because I know that's what she'd want me to do. I take solace in the fact that she no longer has to deal with the trials and tribulations of this world, and I know that she's in a better place and that we'll be together again soon. I was very moved by the number of persons who came to pay their respects to my mother, Shirley; my sister, Cheek; and the rest of our family, particularly people who we had known as children growing up in the old neighborhood. It warms our hearts to know that she touched so many lives, and that those persons took the time and made the effort to acknowledge her; we appreciate your kind words and gestures more than you will ever know. Hey, Catbird: I'm still going to cut your hair!!!! I say this to you, my dear, sweet, baby sister: I will carry you in my heart forever. Love always, Cissy (your "middle" big sister)###imported-begin###Jacqueline Scott###imported-end###

“ To the family, please accept my deepest and most heartfelt condolences. We are all so very hurt over the death of our dear sister Stephanie. She was a dear, sweet person who really loved Jehovah. I hope that for the rest of my life in this world that I show the same integrity that Stephanie exemplified in her life. She was truly a good example for us all. To her mom, I truly know your pain, because I too lost my son at a young age. What comforts me is that knowing if I continue faithful then I will be with him again forever, and never will death part us again. If you would like to talk to someone who's been there, please contact me anytime at my e-mail address. Meanwhile, trust in Jehovah with all your heart, serve him faithfully as Stephanie, and you will see her again. Jehovah be with you.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of Stephanie. It is so good to know that our loving heavenly Father does not take our loved ones away from us. His word, the Bible teaches that because of inherited sin from Adam all of us are dying. (Romans 5:12) Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ have given us a loving gift, the hope of eternal life in a peaceful new world.(John 3:16, Matthew 5:5) Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." May Jehovah God give you much comfort and strength until these promises take place in the very near future.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Stephanie was one of my dearest sisters. I am still hurt over her untimely death. I am so grateful to Jehovah God for the resurrection hope through his son Jesus Christ where we can all see Stephanie again & enjoy her beautiful smile. (Romans 5:8) . . .But God recommends his own love to us in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. . . and (Revelation 21:4) And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Then we will have true peace.##imported-begin##Phyllis Towns##imported-end##
