There he had many friends. Stephen enjoyed going to school. His favorite subjects included reading and math. Last semester, Stephen received an award for reading over 70 books. “ Kim, I'm so very sorry that Stephen had such an awful time, and that he couldn't be healed to grow into the wonderful man I'm sure he would have been. I guess God found bigger things for him to do. My heart hurts for you and your family - I know you'll miss him terribly. Love, Mary###imported-begin###Mary Knoll###imported-end##
