

Stephen Gregory

August 18, 1930 - January 1, 2024

Stephen Gregory, Jr., the son of the late Stephen Gregory, Sr. and Polly Gregory, was born on August 18, 1930 in Dillwyn (Buckingham County), VA. He peacefully went into eternal rest on January 1, 2024.

He received his education in the Buckingham County School System (VA).

As a young adult, Stephen moved to Baltimore, MD where he gained employment in construction. You would often hear him tell friends/family of the many buildings, roads, tunnels, etc. that he helped to construct. He took pride in what he did. He worked extremely hard until his retirement.

Stephen married Nannie Gregory, who preceded him in death. You could not mention Stephen without mentioning Nannie. They welcomed all to their home, where you would find them sitting outside with their crossword puzzle books or you would find them sitting in their living room, watching television, especially Westerns. They would go to casinos, travel to Virginia to visit family or simply stay at home, enjoying life with friends and family.

He was known for being the center of attention of any family function because of his sense of humor and trash talking that he loved doing with his nieces and nephews. He would do anything for anybody that asked. He may have come short to say, 'I love you.' However, his actions, giving heart and a smile expressed his love for his family.

In recent years, Stephen endured a lot, but he fought his way through many storms and many battles. He displayed endurance, strength, courage and his will to live.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Nannie Gregory; grandson, Malik T. Gregory; his parents, Stephen Sr. and Polly Gregory; three brothers, James, LeRoy and Moses; seven sisters, Helen, Mattie, Mary, Lucille, Salone, Gertrude and Edna.

He leaves to cherish his memory, two sons, Anthony and Steven D. Gregory; nine grandchildren, Ashley, Sharday, Shelitta, Trayvon, Jasmine, Shaniqua, Jamal, Sierra and Raina; fourteen great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews and other family members and friends.
