Life Reflections

Proverbs 3:5-6

“Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.in all thy ways acknowledge him,and he shall direct thy paths.”

Stephen Anthony Lomax was born on December 11, 1983, in Richmond, Virginia; and transitioned to his heavenly home on November 1, 2025. Stephen was the son of David Anthony Lomax and Amanda Parker Peterson.

At an early age, Stephen accepted Christ. He was baptized at Rising Mount Zion Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia.

After attending schools in Hanover County and Benedictine College Preparatory School, Stephen graduated from Varina High School in Henrico, Virginia in 2002.

Stephen was a kind and loving person who always had a smile to share with family and friends. Stephen loved motorcycles and cars. He was a great car salesman who helped many Richmond locals become first time car owners.

At the time of his passing, he was employed by RimTyme Custom Wheels and Tires of Richmond, Virginia. Stephen was also an avid Philadelphia Eagles fan.

Stephen leaves to cherish and celebrate his life, his father, David Anthony Lomax,

Stephen is also survived by his uncles, James Lomax (Aurelia), Daniel Parker (Felita), George Parker, Leon Parker (Toni), and Gordon Peterson; and one devoted aunt, Doris (DeeDee) Parker. “ With Deepest Sympathy
When we lose someone, we love-- time seems to stand still.
What moves through us is a silence,
a quiet sadness,
a longing for one more day,
one more word, one more touch.
We may not understand why
Stephen left this earth so soon, or why he left before you were ready to say good-bye,
but little by little, you will begin to remember
not just that Stephen died, but that he lived.
And that his life gave you memories too beautiful to forget.
You will see him again someday, in a heavenly place where there is no parting.
A place where there are no words that mean good-bye.
