

Stephen R Savage

October 1, 1972 - June 19, 2016

Stephen R. Savage, Jr. (aka Steve) was born October 1, 1972 in Baltimore, Md. to Stephen R. and June Savage. He departed this life unexpected on Sunday, June 19, 2016.

Steve graduated from Owings Mills High School. He eventually decided to venture away from home by travelling around the country using his managerial skills as an entrepreneur in sales distribution by negotiating and acquiring new clients. He enjoyed travelling and meeting new people along the way. He often boasted about the breathtaking sceneries.

Steve was such a happy-go-luck person, who loved to laugh and play practical jokes on unsuspecting subjects. He had an infectious smile, laughter, and personality. His aspirations were larger than life and he desired to one day own/manage a company. Steve enjoyed sketching and drawing (boy was he good at it), as well as listening to music and composing lyrics. He was also an avid user of Facebook which enabled him to keep in contact with his many, many friends, and to acquire new ones. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to mourn: his father, Stephen R. Savage, Sr.; mother, June Hooks; step-father, Leon Andrews; one son, Tavon Savage; one daughter, Asia Greene; sister, Breon Savage; grandsons, Chace and Charles; granddaughter

Charlee; nephew, Kaiden; devoted friend, Carole Washington, and a host of other relatives and friends.
