

Stephen A Swann

February 7, 1955 - March 27, 2016

STEPHEN ALVIN SWANN, son of the late William Francis Swann and Helen Higgins Swann, was born on February 7, 1955 in Jarrettsville, Maryland. He departed this life, suddenly on March 27, 2016.

Stephen was known as Bo and Dumplin' by his mother and grandmother, but was called Steve by other family and friends. He attended Central Consolidation school as a young boy and later attended Baltimore City Public School, graduating from Northwestern Senior High in 1974.

He was christened at St. James UMC and was a life-time member. He also attended Chestnut Grove AME to Sunday school and was baptized as a young man.

His first job was at McCormick Spice Company and he later evolved into his passionate occupation as a Painter until his illness. He worked for painting companies such as Burton & Burton and Robinson Painting Company.

Steve had many passions. He loved dogs all of his life. He treasured his dog, Jackado. Steve was happy to help the neighborhood seniors: Catherine Cherry, Laura Darling, Dorothy Simon and close buddy, Willie James Thomas. He enjoyed March Madness college basketball and Pro-football. His passion for landscaping design blessed the neighborhood as well as his handyman skills.

At family events, Steve was the first one to put on an apron and get to work on the line. He'd be wet from sweat helping. Steve did not have children, but spent many hours with his nieces and nephews. He spent time developing strong relationships with them and was respected for giving them positive advice.

Preceding him in death were his parents and long-time girlfriend, Debbie Johnson.

He leaves to cherish his memory: William Swann (wife, Renee), Nancy Tillery, Helen "Jackie" Williams, Harry Swann (wife, Barbara); godchildren, Joshua Swann, Nicholas McCaffity, Cory Robinson and special times with all his nieces and nephews. We have been blessed and our lives have been enriched because we have been touched by such a rare, beautiful and precious gift as Steve. We thank God for allowing Steve to touch our lives for so many years.

“ Cousin Stevie was indeed a man of pure joy. I can recall every time we talked , we laughed about everything. He had a way of making anything that seemed too hard to handle look rather easy. No matter how he felt, he made me happy. I know cousin Stevie is in perfect form now. He is without cares of this world of hurt and sadness. My beautiful cousin is with God .rejoicing, singing and he free . To my beautiful family, there are absolutely no words that could soothe your pain; as I truly wish there were words that I could say that would erase the pain away. Your love and total trust in Almighty God is the key to comfort during this time of sadness. I cannot speak of cousin Stevie"s presence as past tense , because I know he is more alive than ever now.
