

Stephen C. Wesson Jr.

September 15, 1940 - March 10, 2014

STEPHEN C. WESSON JR. was born on September 15, 1940 to Stephen Wesson Sr. and Eula-Mae Lightfoot in Baltimore, Maryland. He received his formal education in Baltimore public schools and graduated from Carver High School.

In 1967 Stephen became a steelworker of Bethlehem Steel. He worked as a steelworker for over forty years, where he almost never missed anytime, nor EVER called out. He retired in 2004 only for a short break and did another tour until 2008.

In 1969 he met his soul mate, Audrey Wesson and they were married in 1972. In 1985 Stephen had his first son, Stephen Marty Wesson.

Stephen was an extremely kind, generous and SELFLESS man who touched everyone around him, young and old. His smile was contagious and warm heart made you feel comfortable. He was known to be a SNAPPY dresser and True Master Carpenter and Painter. Some say he was better painter than Michelangelo. Besides freelancing as a home improvement specialist, his other passion was raising dogs. He was a natural Dog Whisperer.

On March 10, 2014, Stephen C. Wesson was called home to Glory and help God paint in Heaven. He is survived by: his wife, Audrey Wesson; son, Stephen M. Wesson; brothers, Cotrell and Norman Wesson; nephew, Stevie Wesson; cousins, Francine Asby and James Lightfoot and many others; favorite brother-in law, Jerry Branch; and a host of friends he made during his time on Earth.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Words don't always ease the pain when we are grieving the loss of a love one. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in God's promise to soon “wipe out every tear from your eyes...and death be no more” (Rev 21:3,4). While grief at the loss of your family member is great, joy at welcoming them back in the resurrection will be greater (John 5:28, 29). Again, my deepest sympathy and warmth of heart. “ Uncle Steve,

I will miss you. My most vivid memories were from my childhood. But I will remember you, love you, and miss you forever. I hope that you didn't suffer too much. Rest in Peace.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He promises a resurrection to our dear loved ones to a restored Paradise Earth. He even assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ My condolences go out to the family of Mr Stephen Wesson Jr. This must be a difficult time for you, understanding that someone that you loved passed away. God has provided us with a comforting promise and it involves us seeing our loved ones again. Revelation 21:4 says. “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes. Isn't that good news?
