

Stephone J. Williams

May 11, 1962 - January 16, 2018

STEPHONE JONATHAN WILLIAMS of Baltimore, Maryland departed this life suddenly on Tuesday, January 16, 2018 at Northwest Hospital. Stephone was born to Eddie Williams and Marva Williams on May 11, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Stephone was educated in the Public School System of Baltimore, Maryland. Stephone had a love for art, and he would draw birthday cards for some of his family members on their birthdays. Stephone enjoyed eating, he especially enjoyed his stepmother's potato salad.

Stephone accepted Christ at a very young age at Jerusalem Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. L. Murrell. Stephone had a strong love for his family. Stephone was very protective of his family. With no children of his own, Stephone would do anything for his sisters and brothers as well as his nieces and nephews.

Stephone was preceded in death by: four siblings, Baby Girl Williams, Baby Boy Williams, Michelle Williams, and Eddie Williams Jr. and two nephews, Rashad Tittle and Toniko Mackey.

He leaves to cherish his memory: three devoted parents, his mother, Marva Williams; father, Eddie Williams and a special stepmother, Linda C. Williams;

three brothers, Marvin Williams (Antoinette), Marquis Williams (Carmen) and Maurice Williams (Danielle); four sisters, Antoinette Williams, Evelyn Simmons, Kimberly Williams-Lowery (Shelton), and Jonelle Williams; thirty-seven nieces and nephews and twenty-seven great-nieces and nephews; and a host of relatives and friends.
