“ from his extented family at northwest hospital infusion center ( everything is beautiful) and whats to eat. Smile he would come in with that smile and never complain about anything he just did what he had to do with a smile on his face along as we gave him some food and he would lay back in the recliner and go to sheep and call those hogs because he was full and peaceful and that smile on his face was the best. he will be greatly missed by all of us in the infusion center. prayer go out to the family.

He walk his jounry with a smile on his face because God was walking with him every step of the way. It may have been hard at times but he still let you know that know matter what way it may turn out **** Everything was going to be Beautiful*****
