

Steve Marshall Nickens

February 22, 1948 - July 27, 2022

Steve Marshall Nickens, was born to the late Philip M. and Bessie M. Nickens, the youngest of five children. He departed this life on July 27, 2022 after a long illness.

Steve, as he was affectionately known to family and friends, attended the Baltimore Junior Academy where he was Valedictorian of his class. He was baptized in Berea Temple Seventh Day Adventist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. He loved sports and playing chess. Steve even held competitions over the phone with Ben Carson and some others.

Steve married the former Maria Evette Mosby, and from this union they were blessed with three sons, Troy, Marc, and Kris Nickens. He relocated to Florida, due to a job opportunity and remarried.

Steve is remembered by his siblings as being mostly on the quiet side, but he was serious about taking care of business. He loved food, and ate it well. He will surely be missed by a host of relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his brother and sister, Cyres L. Nickens and Anna Yvonne Lawyer.

Steve leaves behind his sons, Troy Nickens (Tanya Bryant-Nickens), Marc

Nickens and Kris Nickens (Leigh Nickens); grandchildren, Angelique Nickens and Kaila Nickens; two siblings, Phillip H. Nickens and Aloma R. Good; and a host of other relatives and friends.
