

Steven Allen King

November 10, 1986 - September 10, 2006

STEVEN ALAN KING, son of the late Angela King and Ronald Davis, was born November 10, 1986 in Baltimore, Maryland. Steven was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from W.E.B. DuBois High School in 2005. Steven was an outgoing and very funny person. He made friends wherever he went, and to know him was to love him. He had a love for driving go-carts, riding bikes, he loved tumbling, flipping somersaults, playing video games and movies, his favorite being "Lean On Me." His love of oldies but goodies music was his passion. Steven's compassion for people led him to volunteer at the Waxter Senior Center on Read Street, Manor Home and Red Cross. He was employed at Sinai Hospital for a short time. He leaves to cherish his memory: brother, Robert King; sister, Tarisha King; grandfather, Bryant Wesley Crawford; great-grandmother, Mary King; niece, Jamiera; uncles, Tony and Bryant; great-uncle and -aunt, David and Joann Whitfield; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends. Steven shared a very special and unique relationship with his great-aunt Velma.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. The sorrow we feel when we lose someone we love can seem to go on forever. It may seem like there is no source of relief. Be assured that there is one that will provide us with relief, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort". We only have to ask. He promises us that soon there will be an end to death, (Rev 21:3,4) and a resurrection for those those who have fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29). These promises were made by the "God who cannot lie." (Titus 1:2.) I would love to discuss these and other wonderful provisions with you. Please contact me if you are interested.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
