

Steven B. Bessick

September 13, 1936 - December 20, 2002

Steven Bernard Bessick, son of the late Blanche and Harry Bessick, was born on September 13, 1936. Steve received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. As a young man, Steve went to work for American Tennis Courts where he was employed for well over twenty-five years, until he retired. Steve loved many things but none more than music. He would play anything on the piano just by ear and loved to sit around with his family and friends and sing the gospel. Yes, music was his first true love. Steve leaves to mourn: his wife; Calita McCoy-Bessick; three daughters, Dale, Towanda and Lattissia; three grandsons, Sean, Jr., Qaaree and Jamiel; six sisters, Dolores, Beatrice, Elaine, Katie, Joyce and Janice; one brother, Richard; three brothers-in-law, one sister-in-law, a very loving and devoted until the end sister in his heart, Indiana; five aunts, three uncles, numerous nieces, nephews, a host of other relative and friends.
