

Steven Deon Gillus

January 14, 1983 - September 21, 2022

Steven Deon Gillus, (affectionately know as Heavy) son of Margaret Gillus and Joseph McGirt was born January 14, 1983 in Baltimore, Maryland. On September 21, 2022 he was called home.

Steven received his education in the Baltimore City School System. He later attended Montgomery Community College. Steven played Pop Warner football and Basketball throughout his younger years. Though great at both sports, he dominated at football. Playing the position of Tale-end, Running Back and Linebacker. It was tantalizing to see him run to the end zone and gut-wrenching to hear him crush an offensive receiver. Steven adored coaching his eldest son SJ's little league flag football team. He had dreams and aspiration to own his own little league team.

Steven was a "BOSS". and was loved by many. his smile personality and generosity were unmatched. He would literally give you the shirt off his back. One of the greatest loves of his life was his mother " Bo or Niecy" if you are new to it. He assured his mother was in a safe environment no matter the cost He was a God Fearing man and a devoted member of Empowerment Temple. He loved and adored his children, as they were the center of his life. He loved to travel with his eldest daughter Morgan, and if given the opportunity he would've shown his other children how beautiful the world can truly be.

Steven is preceded in death by his beloved grandmother, Margaret Young. He leaves to cherish his memory: His mother Margaret Gillus; his father Joseph McGrit; six children, Morgan Anderson, Lasarah Boston,

Steven Deon Gillus, Jr., Harlie Goodman, Keon Gillus, and Deon Gillus:
one sister, Alicia Gillus, brother-in-law Ronnie Parker: a host of siblings on his fathers' side: two uncles, Wayne and Will: three Aunts: Sandra Jeannie and Jean: two nieces Branae and Tyrese, one god brother, Joseph Harrington, Long time friend and brother, Tay Rose and a host of relative and friends.
