

Steven Harvey Matthews

May 13, 1958 - December 26, 2002

Steven Harvey Matthews was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 13, 1958 to the late Lewis L. and Doris Matthews. He departed this life on December 26, 2002 after a short illness. "Stevie," as he was fondly called, was raised and educated in Catonsville, Maryland. He was employed as a maintenance contractor for various colleges. Later, he was united in marriage to Brenda Weller and from this union they bore four children. A dedicated father, "Stevie" always gave unselfishly to all of his children. Ashton was his heart. He was a best friend to his wife of twenty-seven years. He was a devoted family man. "Stevie" had the ability to make everyone feel comfortable and welcome, whenever in his presence. "Stevie" possessed a great passion for horses. He shared this passion with his wife and children. He enjoyed watching Ashton ride her horse "Clyde." His favorite pastime was playing computer games with his children and friends. He is survived by: his wife, Brenda Ann; sons, Steven Jr. and Jackie Lee; two daughters, Stephanie and Ashton; grandson, Malik; mother, Doris Matthews; brother, Lewis L. Matthews II; sisters, Jennifer Wallace, Cavelia Duvall, Erlina Matthews, Heidi DeVane and Martinus Levere; brothers-in-law, James Duvall, James Levere and Fred Wallace; a devoted cousin, Brian Matthews; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
