“ To my godfather, I miss you so much. I don't know why it took me so long to write something but you have to understand that nobody wanted me to know about your death until afterwards. I was happy to find out that I was carrying twins. I use to say like father like daughter. You have beautiful and wonderful children. I'm glad to have younger siblings. I know you are looking down on us making sure that we're doing the right thing. I can remeber when I use to see you, you would remind me that you are still going to get me an sweat-suit that i had wanted like when I was in grade school. As I got older and you would say that I would say don't even worry about I'll just get it next year and we both would laugh about it. I can remember trips to the circus when you and godmother would get me whatever I wanted, the sky was the limit. I remember going shopping or going downtown and both of you'll giving me whatever I wanted. I can remember being around the way getting icecream everytime the truck came pass or we went to the corner store. I just remember having fun with you'll. Well in 2005 the fun stop for God has choosen you to watch over us. I thank God for the memories I can remember when you told me about my brother and sister and how excited I was to know that somebody was younger then me. When I found out where they live I went and saw them. But I allowed for my school to get into my family life and lost contact with them. Thanks to technology I can chat with them and see how there doing. To the family we might have lost a love one but we gained another angel. I thank God for allowing him to be in my life, teach me and show me things. Thank you and I love you.

Your Loving Goddaughter
Jonelle Williams

“ to the family and friends of mr. Kayham - as many of my friends who have previously written to you, i too share with you that there is the bible based hope of seeing your loved one again, as the bible holds out the hope of the resurrection and that of life on earth under paradasaic conditions. at that time there will be no wickedness, sickness, death, hunger or anything causing pain to come up - a wonderful prospect for those who learn to and who practice reighteousness in their lives now. Jehovah has promised these things and His own word the bible says He cannot lie. read these verses from your bible - Rev.21:3,4, John5:28,29, Ps.37:9-11, Proverbs3:5,6 if after reading these you would like to learn more, please contact me at my e-mail address kic2@verizon.net##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. At such a difficult time as this comfort from God's Word would be in order. At Revelation 21:4 it says- "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." With the assured hope of a world without pain, this will bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ To the Kaham's Family: I am sorry to learn about your recent loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It's at times like this that we need comfort, support, and questions answered. The Bible can be our basis for all of these. At Job 14: 14 a questioned is asked. " If an able bodied man die, can he live again?" The answer is found at John 11: 25. Here Jesus says, " I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercise faith in me, even though he die, SHALL live again." Yes, Almighty God, through his Son Jesus Christ, has promised to resurrect our dearly beloved ones into a beautiful paradise. I pray that you rely on the "God of All Comfort, now and in the days to come. Acts 24: 15, Luke 23: 43.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
