“ I remember my cousin Stevie as a child when he was a teen. My most vivid memory of him was saying to me and everyone"...I have a proposition for you..." Stevie was a happy person with boundless energy. He seemed to fill any room with conversation, jokes and news of current events. Whenever I remember Stevie, I will forever see the strong, straight and intelligent young man fresh from the Army standing in Aunt Sadie and Uncle Herbert's home full of eternal optimism and the promise of infinite tomorrows. May God grant you peace and rest Stevie.

Your cousin,

“It’s never the right time to say goodbye”. Uncle Stevie loved all of his nieces, nephews and their kids with all of his heart. He genuinely loved kids, and kids loved him. He was always upbeat, kind and excited when you spoke to him in person or on the phone. My fondest memory of Uncle Stevie was that he was ALWAYS happy, no matter what his circumstances were. Now the Lord can enjoy his joyousness. I Love you Uncle Stevie, you will be missed. You shall live in the hearts of those who loved you and will thus never die or be forgotten
