“ To the family, My sincere condolences to you all. Losing a loved one is never easy because it creates a void no human can fill. However through the scriptures we can receive comfort from the God of all comfort. The Almighty promises to restore this earth back to a paradise at Psa 37:10,11 and to resurrect our loved ones at Acts 24:15. May these promises provide you all with hope, faith and comfort.##imported-begin##T. Taylor##imported-end##
