

Streta Davis

January 10, 1935 - June 7, 2004

Streta Davis, son of the late Jule Davis and Blanch Davis, was born on January 10, 1935 in Marlboro County, South Carolina. He departed this life on June 7, 2004 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Marlboro County school system of South Carolina and worked at Union Memorial Hospital in Baltimore. He accepted Christ at an early age. He was a strong, compassionate and devoted family man. His wife and family were most important in his life. He would help any and everyone who needed him. Streta made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. During the summer, his favorite pastime was sharing old memories, listening to oldie but goodie music and washing his car. He met his childhood sweetheart Sallie Davis in 1950. They enjoyed over forty-five blessed and loving years of marriage. In all these years they were never away from each other, they were always together side by side. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Sallie Davis; three sons, Streta Davis Jr., Ray Davis and Anderson Davis; one daughter, Jacqueline Davis; three stepchildren, Frank Smith, Sarah Smith and Mary Helen York; three grandchildren, Danyetta Davis, Omari Miller and Chase Davis Shafer; one great-grandson, Daquan Davis. He also leaves behind his mother-in-law, Maggie McLoud; two brothers-in-law, Otis McFall and Paul McLoud; two sisters-in-law, Mary Alice Macmillian of North Carolina and Delores Blow of Philadelphia, Pa.; two sisters, Rosette Cook of Marlboro County, South Carolina and Mary Ruth Harris of Norfolk, Va.; and an extended, extended, extended family of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
