Under all speech that is good, the Lord is our Shepard and we shall not want. He moves in mysterious ways and his wonders to perform. He plants his footsteps on the seas and rides upon the Storms. God will make a way for you and wipe all tears from our eyes.

“ Susan "Sue" was an employee for Creative Family Solutions, Inc for years. I was her Supervisor. No matter how bad Sue felt she would always tell me that I feel good and I am alright. I remember visiting her in the hospital one time although I could tell that she wasn't doing well at all, Sue still had that sparkle in her eye. She is definitely an example of no matter how bad you feel or how tough things get, stay encourage and keep moving. Please accept my heartfelt smypathy along with my co-workers from Creative Family Solutions, Inc. We will pray for you and with you and May you all find strength from family, friends and the Lord. God bless you all. R. I. E. P Sue. much love, Thomasina

“ Susan was more than a sister; she was my best friend and mom when mama was not around. She always had a smile on her face and could brighten the darkest days. Growing up, we shared a bedroom for many years. Even though at times it caused disagreements, it was a wonderful memory of mine. I would sit in my bed and watch her talk on the phone for hours while she would pop Juicy Fruit chewing gum. I wanted to be just like her when I grew up. Susan will always be remembered for her beauty, positive attitude, compassion, generosity, and love for life. My sister was an example to everyone she met of how to live life. I am honored that Susan was my sister and will look back on our time together with fond memories. Susan, I will always remember you and the time we spent together. Your memory will live on in my heart forever. I love you Cathy.

“ To the Family of Susan Alston:

I wanted to write to share some comfort with you from the bible. The bible tells us that when we lose someone in death we do have the hope of seeing them again. It tells us too at Isaiah 25:8 that God will swallow up death forever. Then the bible tells us at Revelation 21:4 that there will be no more sickness, death or pain. What a wonderful hope. The bible tells us at 1 John 4:8 that God loves us and this means he will make us happy. 1 Timothy 1:11 says he is a happy God. So he knows that when our loved ones die it hurts so he has made us a promise that we will see them again and we will. Titus 1:2 says God cannot lie so we look forward to the fulfillment of his promises. So if you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.

“ I am so sorry to find this obituary this morning. I worked with Susan many years ago at United VA Bank Operations Center on Parham Rd. She and I became very close and she was such a treasure. Always smiling and laughing, so stunningly beautiful and a very dear person at heart. She left United VA Bank and shortly thereafter I left and we lost touch. Over the years I would find myself looking through the phone book or trying to figure out how to find her. I'm so sad that she has passed but I am sure she is in Heaven. Susan and I had some wonderful times working together. We went out to lunch frequently and we shared stories and laughter. She was a very good friend to me as I was going through a very difficult time and she always knew how to make me smile. She was a gorgeous woman inside and out and always so feminine and graceful and with such poise and finesse. I admired so much. She always carried herself like such a lady and indeed a sweet lady she was and to this day I try and carry myself as Susan did. She spoke so eloquently but two seconds later could have you laughing. Her picture here is beautiful, she looked just like this when I worked with her. Such a sweet person. My heart, thoughts and prayers are with you all. I always missed Susan. I wish that we would have kept in touch.

“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. I personally experienced the grief of losing my loved ones. However, there is comfort to know the Holy Scriptures gives the assurance that God will end death, pain and sorrow. Rev 21:4
For the ones we have lost in death, there is a promise for them by means of the resurrection. John 5:28,29

Our sincere condolences. Susan assisted me several times in contacting Walter to work in my yard. I always enjoyed talking with her. Her dad, Willie, was my best friend and we often shared stories about our children. Our prayer is that God will comfort you all during this time.
