

Susan Carol White

November 20, 1948 - May 27, 2009

SUSAN CAROL WHITE departed this life on May 27, 2009, after a long battle with cancer. Susie, as she was affectionately known, was born on November 20, 1948 to James Frell White and Thelma Speaks-White. Susie was educated by the Baltimore City Public School Systems and graduated from Edmondson High School in 1966. As a business major she embarked on different careers with the C&P Telephone Company, Mercantile Bank and finally retired with thirty years of service with the CSX Railroad on January 7, 2009. Even though Susie was diagnosed with cancer, after her father passed, Susie was totally devoted to the care of her Mom for many years until her Mom's death in 2006. Susie was an only child, but from an early age once she learned how to cross Franklin Street she was always at Uncle Al's and Aunt Margaret's house. She grew up with their children as a sister rather than a cousin. Susie loved to shop and get good, good bargains for herself and many family members. On special occasions she would always think of the little cousins and send packages of toys and clothes from Florida. Susie also loved to travel. She would go to Ocean City and bring back loads of taffy. She went to Olathe, Kansas to visit her godson Sean and his family and she always loved coming home to see her family. When Susie came to Baltimore, one of her favorite things to do was to go to Lexington Market and get steak fish, cod fish (for cod fish cakes) and Konstant hotdogs and let's not forget a box of "Yaw" from the Chinese place. Susie will be greatly missed. She leaves to cherish and celebrate her life a host of relatives and friends. A special thanks to Kia Rolle, a devoted cousin who took care of cousin Susie when she returned to Baltimore. Also a special thanks to Susie's closet friends, Lerona Greene, Rita McKenzie and Candra Tarvel who assisted Susie with shopping, doctor's appointments and personal care in those last days.

Tribute Wall

“ Susan Carol White

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hi Susan. Came across a photo of you the other day with that million dollar smile. Jerome and I think of you often. Missing you...still

Arlene

Arlene McCoggle - October 05, 2017 at 01:13 PM

“ Sue I love you and i will miss you I will remember all the good times we had eating shopping and going to get you favorite shrimp yat ko mein R.I P your loving cousin Re-RE###imported-begin###Rita Rolle###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the resurrection hope. At John 11:38-44 Jesus demonstrated this with his friend Lazarus. May these verses strengthen and encourage you at this time.###imported-begin###Mrs. Howard###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises contained in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Susie I know that you are alright now. You fought a good fight. There is no more pain and you are at peace now. Love you and will miss you! Your Cousin Vonne##imported-begin##Lavonne Speaks##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from that wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ We had good times together and I flew a lot of miles to come and get you from Baltimore to Jacksonville to bring you back home. I took multiple trips back to make sure that your things would come back home in time and I didn't mind because when it was cold in Bmore it was warm in Jacksonville LOL. I just want to say the last few months of your life I took care of you, I was hard on you to make sure you met your goals to succeed in physical therapy, and I was there to the end, but I wanted to say I love you, you will be missed, and the last song you sang to me on the was "I feel good you know that I would" and after all the pain you were in you were moving, smiling and shaking your hips and had me laughing, so you will be missed Love ya your Kiarolle ee###imported-begin###Kia Rolle###imported-end###

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Susan, I am going to miss you very much. You were like a sister to me. I will never forget you. You are in a better place with the Lord and Ms. Thelma. Candra miss you too and you knew that we love you. Lenora###imported-begin###Lenora Green###imported-end###

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Susie, You were always such a courageous lady and I will always respect you for that. There is a special place for you in my heart and memory. Love you.###imported-begin###Nelda Adkins###imported-end###

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To Susan's Family Susan touched many people lives here in Jacksonville. It is my sincere pleasure to have made friends with Susan. She always had a listening ear, a generous spirit and a good sense of humor. There are some sayings that she would always say that I will remember her bye. Love you and May God Bless You. Rita McKenzy (re-re)###imported-begin###Rita McKenzy###imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Susan, you were my friend and my sounding board. I would vent to you about the personal issues in my life, and you always listened and gave you opinion no matter what I thought. I am so glad I had the opportunity to meet you, you are surely missed. Thank you for the smiles and support with Zumbajear. RIP###imported-begin###Jerome McCoggle###imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I had the pleasure of being Susan's supervisor and I enjoyed every minute of it. She was a joy and we loved her for all of her specialness. We loved how she spoke, laughed, loved Popeyes chicken and hated plain white paper towels. We'll miss her and are praying for her family. Thank you KIA for all that you have done. She loved you and Mona and spoke fondly of her family. God Bless you all###imported-begin###KEZIA HOLMES###imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, please accept my deepest sympathy for your lost. I worked at CSX for many years and remember Susan and her infectious smile. I retired years ago and have not kept up with the goings on but being a native Baltimorean, we try to stay tuned to each other's dealings. May God's words at Revelation 21:3-4. where he tells us that death and pain will be no more and he will wipe the tears from our eyes and at John 5:28-29 bring you a measure of comfort knowing the promise there made of a resurrection of our loved ones. May Jehovah God bring you his salve of tender compassion.##imported-begin##JAMES TILGHMAN##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I send my sincere and deep condolences for the loss of your loved one. One day soon we will no longer have to say goodbye to our loved ones, because Jehovah, the only true God, is a fulfiller of promises. He has promised at Isaiah 33:24 that one day, "No resident will say, "I am sick", and he also promises at Isaiah 25:8 that he will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." After death is done away with, the dead will be ressurected back to life. Acts 24:15, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." All the dead in the memorial tombs will be able to come to life again, because they will hear Jesus's voice and come out." May your loved ones be comforted by this wonderful promise. John 5:28,29##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM