

Susan Messina-Brown

March 27, 1957 - February 7, 2009

SUSAN MESSINA BROWN, daughter of the late James and Mary Sue Blake, was born on March 27, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. Susan departed this life suddenly on February 7, 2009. Susan received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools, where she received her high school diploma. In 1980 Susan met her soulmate, Jeffrey Brown. On February 24, 2006 Jeffrey and Sue were married and the couple has been together for twenty-nine years. Susan made friends wherever she went. Ms. Sue, as she was called by all who knew her, was a loving, kind person and did all she could for everyone. Susan leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Jeffrey Brown; four children, Susana, Michael, Robert (Scott) and Matthew; two grandchildren, Anna and Joy; ten stepchildren, one uncle; two sister-in-law, Jerina and Anita; one godson whom she loved very dearly, Vick Chance; daughter-in-law, Shawnta Jefferson and her big-boy, Donta Faulkner; goddaughter, Katina Gilmore; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dear family, I send my deep sympathy for the loss of Susan. It is so terribly hard to come to terms with the death of a dear loved one, and death is so unfair to the family left behind. God never desired for us to experience such pain and sorrow, because from the beginning he made man to live, not to die. Unfortunately, through the disobedience of Adam and Eve is the reason why we die today. Romans 5:12. Because of God's great love for us, he never held us accountable for the choice they made, and he has made the way out of this situation through the ransom paid by his beloved son, Christ Jesus. 1st Cor 15:22 promises: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Such a simple statement, but it has such a profound meaning. For those who truly love God and long for peace, they will certainly find it. As Jesus said in his famous sermon on the mount: "Happy are those who mourn, since they will be comforted. Will we see our dead loved ones again? Notice Jesus's words: "I am the resurrection and the life. "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May you be comforted by the sure hope of the resurrection.
