“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 reveals that our "enemy death" will be done away with. Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from these wonderful promises that will be made possible by Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.

“ Special memories of Susan will forever be in the hearts of her family and friends. Thank you God for sharing her with us. We hope the special memories will put a smile on your face when you think of Susan. We know she would want you smiling.

The Family - December 25, 2010 at 10:25 PM

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you can be comforted by the wonderful hope of the resurrection. The Bible gives this wonderful prophecy at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away." Yes we all look forward to when death will soon be a thing of the past.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
