

Susie M. Brock

October 10, 1923 - May 8, 2020

Susie Mae Brock, daughter of the late William M. Lesene and Carrie Robinson Lesene, was born on Oct. 10, 1923 in Manning, South Carolina. She departed this life on Friday, May 8, 2020, after a brief illness. She was one of eight children, William, Claude, Queen Ella (SISTER), Harry, Clarabelle, Stephen, and Catherine, all who preceded her in death. Susie married the late Peter Brock Jr, in 1945, in Baltimore. This union produced four children, Alfonse, Patricia, David, and Delores. She was predeceased by her loving husband, Peter in August of 1993 Alfonse in April 2020, Patricia in October 2010, and David in March of 1993.

She was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church for 74 yrs. Susie was very active in her church serving as a usher and deaconess, sponsored students for the Baltimore Junior Academy, and served as a member of the Dorcus Society and the 50 Plus Club.

Susie was a very open and friendly person to all. She had an open heart and open hands to all who knew her. She possessed a beautiful smile and greeted everyone as if she knew them. Susie was welcoming. Upon entering her home, she always offered you food to consume and something to drink. She was an awesome cook and she prepared delicious meals effortlessly.

Susie was an avid gardener. She was able to make anything grow and flourish. She took delight in working in her yard and she could work for hours endlessly beautifying her garden and plants.

She was an impeccable dresser. She was known for wearing beautiful hats with all her outfits. Susie was a beautiful lady inside and out. She was fondly referred to as the “Q”, meaning Queen. Susie carried herself like royalty and most treated her just like that.

Susie is survived by one daughter, Delores West, two grandsons, Kenneth Nixon and Darius Brock, three great-granddaughters, one great-grandson and several nieces and nephews.
