

Susie Jones Harris

September 21, 1923 - September 5, 2018

Susie “Boo” Harris was born on September 21, 1923 to the late Bennie and Nellie Jones in Hanover County, Virginia. She entered her heavenly home in the early morning hours of September 5, 2018.

Susie attended Hanover County School System, as a young woman, she was joined in holy matrimony to the late George “Jack” Harris, Sr. They made their home and raised eight children in Elmont, Virginia.

Susie accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior at Brown Grove Baptist Church. She later joined St. John’s Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia, where she was an active member of the Good Samaritan Missionary Club, the flower Club and the choir.

Susie worked as a domestic worker and took pride in her work. She was a phenomenal woman who loved everyone. She loved being with her family, traveling, cooking and being in her yard planting flowers.

Susie was preceded in death by her husband, George “Jack” Harris, Sr.; four sons, Joseph Harris, James Harris, Albert “Maryland” Harris and Kenneth Harris; four brothers, David Jones, Randolph Jones, James Jones and Aubrey Jones; and five sisters, Elizabeth Lewis, Delia Lewis, Margie Hardy, Annie Cash and Emma Lewis. She leaves to cherish her memory, two sons, George Harris, Jr. and Howard Harris, Sr. (Renee); two devoted daughters, Carolyn Bagby (Gary, Sr.), and Mary Harris (caregiver); nineteen grandchildren, thirty-five great-grandchildren; two sisters, Dorothy Brooks and Cora Edwards; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
