

Susie Mae Mackall

May 1, 1916 - January 5, 2005

Susie Mae Wooley, daughter of the late Lucy Wade and James Wooley, was born on May 1, 1916 in Montgomery, North Carolina. On Wednesday, January 5, 2005, she was called home to be with the Lord. Susie spent her childhood years in Detroit, Michigan and Princeton, New Jersey. In 1946, she moved to Baltimore where she began working for C & P Telephone Company. She retired in 1976 after thirty years of service. In Baltimore, Susie met and later married the late Jesse "Jimmy" Mackall. From this union was born one son, Tony Demetrious Mackall. Susie became a faithful parishioner of St. Veronica Catholic Church and attended Mass regularly until she became too ill to attend. Susie was a fun loving person who enjoyed people, entertaining and "games of chance". Baseball, boxing and football were Susie's favorite sports. Everybody who knew her loved her and her loving and generous ways. Susie said what she believed regardless of what others thought. Susie was "Susie" challenging life and trusting in God. She leaves to mourn: her devoted son, Tony; loving granddaughter, Joi; sister, Frances Davis; devoted friends, Rosa McCoy, Denise Johnson, Julia Dinkins and Barbara Parker; and many relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Mrs. Mackall, I wanted to take this time to express my condolences on the loss of your loved one. I wanted to let you know that the Bible offers hope and comfort at times like this. The scriptures tells us that God is a God of Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 & Isaiah 66:13). They also tell us that he sees our plight is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves, Psalm 34:18. There is also hope of seeing our dead loved ones again in a different world free from all the stresses of this world. A world where there are no crimes, sickness, death, poverty, etc. These promises can be found at scriptures such as Psalm, 37:10, 11; Revelation 21:3, 4; John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14. There are plenty of other scriptures but time will not permit me to give them all to you. The next time Jehovah’s Witnesses knock on your door please if you ask them they will be more than happy to give you more comfort from the scriptures. Please take the time to read the scriptures mentioned and draw comfort from them whenever you feel the need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
