“ I remember Sybil always having a smile on her face. When I was younger and she and my brother were married I remember her baking chocolate chip cookies with me when I used to spend the nights with them. I wish I would have gotten a chance to see her before she passed, but at least I will have those childhood memories of such a sweet, loving, kind and considerate person. The kind of person that you just don't come across everyday. Sybil was a special person. Trudy, Timmy and Renee, I know you will miss Sybil, but just know God has set aside a very special place for his very special people. Sybil is with him at this time, out of pain and resting with him eternally.
