“ Hello Kim: You know that my memories of Mr. Brown goes way back to when we were in High School. He would gives us rides even though I would give him a hard time. I also remember those ham & cheese sandwiches you would make with the pepper on the bread. I was to scared to eat in front of your father and he wasn't paying me a bit of attention, he would always laugh at me. Kim,I know that your dad was very proud to be your Father because you were and still is always there for him. And know this..... Your Heavenly Father is please as well!!! Much Love##imported-begin##Mickey##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I am writing because my brother's who has past was also named sylvester also my husband worked at the lumber yard too. His name was Roland he also is dead. Through all of this I am being substained by my faith and the promise of the ressurection. I believe what luke 20:38 to know that God sees those who exercise faith in as still alive and that death cannot separate us from him. That we are still living from his standpoint is very encouraging isn't it? Don't give up. build more faith by studying the Bible as I do. To gain more faith and love for God is a blessing that helps us to endure.##imported-begin##J.Shaw##imported-end##
