

Sylvester Buckson

July 30, 1953 - January 24, 2016

SYLVESTER BUCKSON, son of the late Nesbitt H. and Sarah Buckson, was born on July 30, 1953 In Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 24, 2016 after a lengthy battle with cancer. He passed away peacefully at Stella Maris Hospice.

He recieved his education from Baltimore City School System. After achool Sylvester held many full time jobs from working at the hospital to railroad. His last and final job was being a truck driver. He gave his life to christ and became a member at Grace Baptist Church, his family church.

He married the former Althea Pamela Pryor, and from this union, four beautiful children, Eric, Sylvia, Sherita and Crystal were born.

Sylvester's first priority was always his children and grandchildren. He always made a way to provide for them. He enjoyed spending time with his family as much as we did with him. In his last days he was surrounded by love.

Sylvester had numerous friends from all over. He made friends wherever he went. If you were not a friend you were his family and long lost cousin. He will be remembered by his many stories he would tell and his knowledge of everything (there was nothing or no one he didn't know.)

He was preceded in death by: his father, Nesbitt H. Buckson Sr.; his mother, Sarah Buckson; sister, Elizabeth Graves and brother, Marion Buckson.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Althea; son, Eric; three daughters, Sylvia, Sherita and Crystal; three brothers, Ronald, Nesbitt Jr. and Thomas; seven grandchildren, Courtney, Da'monte, Corey, Kayla, Khyree, Eric Jr., and Elijah; two great granddaughters, Kamryn and Karsen; sisters in law, Victoria, Sandra and Shirley; brothers in law Rudolph and Leon; his extended family, Janice, Jason and Jamiera, and a host of nieces , nephews, relatives and friends.

“ *Life is like a mountain railroad, with an engineer that's brave;
He must make the run successful, from the cradle to the grave;
Watch the curves, the fills, the tunnels; never falter, never quail;
Kept his hand upon the throttle, and his eye upon the rail.*

*He rolled up grades of trial; he crossed bridges of strife;
He saw Christ as his Conductor on his express train of life;
Always mindful of obstruction, he did his duty, striving to never fail;
Kept his hand upon the throttle, and his eye upon the rail.*

*He often found obstructions; weathered storms of wind and rain;
On a fill, or curve, or trestle; they can almost derail your train;
Put his trust alone in Jesus; never falter, never fail;
Kept his hand upon the throttle, and his eye upon the rail.*

*As he rolled across that final trestle, spanning Jordan's swelling tide,
He beholds the terminal into which his train is destined;
There he meets our Chief Dispatcher, God the Father, God the Son,
With a hearty, joyous, plaudit, "Weary railroad man, leave your train on that inbound main you so finely laid, and welcome home!"*

“ *To: Sherita and Family,
Right now when your loss is so fresh, it may be difficult for you to imagine that this pain will ever go away, but in time the blessing of God's unfailing grace will soften the hurt that you're feeling and bring your heart the peace, comfort, and hope that it needs to heal. Until then remember there's a circle of friends surrounding you who are embracing you, and lifting you up in prayer.*

Much sympathy.

“ On behalf of the Cheek-Copeland family, we extend our deepest condolence on Sylvester's home going. I am Thomas Buckson's God-daughter. Tom always stopped in Baltimore to visit his brother and his beautiful family. My brother and I spent many hours playing with Sylvester and his other siblings. We pray for your peace and comfort. Love Vera and family.

“ My father was a great man who loved and adored his children and grandchildren. I miss him so much already. I've never experienced pain like this. I'd give anything just to have him back for 5 minutes. Daddy you will truly be missed. We are all hurting but please watch over Eric he really needs you. He misses you so much and so do we. See you at the Crossroad.
