

Sylvester J. Weaver

June 17, 1962 - February 4, 2005

Often God sends no summons before him and death comes without reckless footsteps to all. Thus a busy life came to a close Friday, February 4, 2005. When the Angels of Silence came and sealed the lips of our loved ones Sylvester J. Weaver known to family and friends as Skinner. Sylvester was born June 17, 1962 to the late Allen Weaver and Lena Evans. He was educated at Baltimore City School, and later worked as a roofer at Phil's roofing company for many years. Skinner as we affectionately knew him was a kind and friendly person with a big smile. He enjoyed dancing and spending time with his children and grandchildren. He leaves to cherish his memories: Mother Lena Evans, five brothers, Frank, Erwin, Larry, Lenny, Kenny, the late Allen Weaver Jr., one son, Sylvester Weaver Jr., three daughters, Jamia, Moneisha and Sherrell; three grandchildren, Tynard, Darius and Emarni; four uncles, six aunts and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ To the Family: I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is such a devastating blow to us all. The Bible can be a wonderful source of comfort to us all. Revelation 21: 3,4, Jehovah God says that he will wipe the tears from all of our eyes and death will be no more. May your family find find comfort from this scripture.##imported-begin##Yolanda Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
