“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family during this difficult time. Losing a loved one in death is the most heartbreaking thing that a family has to endure. Remember that we have a loving heavenly father who knows all of our pains, and who comforts us during all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor 1:3,4 One day he promises that all sickness and death will be gone forever, because 1st Cor 15:26 tells us, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Happily, the dead will be ressurected back to life in paradise conditions. John 5:28,29 tells us, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." May the peace of God be with you, and may you recieve much comfort from his word, the bible.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: "He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: 'Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.'" What a time to look forward to! May God's word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
