A TIME TO BE BORN

SYLVESTER ANDRE LEWIS JR. was born on July 19, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Sylvester Lewis Sr. and Marsha D. Kendell.

A TIME TO LEARN

A TIME TO PLANT

Sylvester worked as a truck driver, construction worker on the State Asbestos Team, and at UMM as a cook. His major accomplishment was operating as a small business owner through janitorial services for companies.

A TIME TO LIVE

Sylvester was a person who loved life. He enjoyed listening to music, entertaining with parties and bar-b-ques. He loved any and everything that was family and community oriented. He loved to fish and was gracious to prepare and give samples of his masterpiece. He was a part of a team for community outreach, where insight, strength and rallies assisted in removing violence and crime in the community. He read books by black leaders and poets and shared his learnings of African royalty and rich cultural descendants. He had a personality and smile that made you have a good time.
