“ To family and friends of Mr. Walden. Please accept my condolences for loss. Even as strangers we all share one thing and that is being touched by this enemy, death. We all know the pain it causes and the grief that we're stricken with at such a difficult time. Our Loving Heavenly Father knows your pain and has given us comfort through the scriptures. He, too, lost a loved one. His son and friend, Jesus. One scripture we can all gain comfort from is at Isaiah 26:19 which says, "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." A corpse of mine- they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents of the dust.." How encouraging to know that soon this will be a reality. May your family continue to look to the bible for comfort.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ To the family of Sylvester Walden, my deepest condolences on the lost of your loved one. The bible has words of comfort. At Revelation 21:3-4, it tells us that God will remove sickness and death forever. Also at Isaiah 25:8, it tells us that Jehovah God will permanently remove death. May these scriptures prove to be a comforting aid to you and your family.##imported-begin##Albert Washington##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Just as we don't forget the ones we know and love, neither does God. Notice what Job 14:14, 15 says- "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relied comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." I hope this message will strengthen you each day.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
