

Sylvia Ann Bryant

November 14, 1939 - February 4, 2009

SYVIA BRYANT was born on November 14, 1939 to the late John and Mary Harrod. She departed this life on February 4, 2009 after a brief illness. Syl, as most of us called her, was born in Washington, D.C. where she attended Washington, D.C. public schools. Upon coming to Baltimore, she was joined in marriage to Samuel Bryant. From this union came two daughters. Syl worked various jobs through the years. She was a loving mother, grandmother, aunt and friend. She loved to socialize, but most importantly she loved her family. Syl always spoke her mind but you always knew she still loved you. In her youth Syl loved to play softball. Syl played on a women's team for Buck's Lounge. Syl also loved to watch movies and listen to music. She would even cut a step or two from time to time (dancing, that is). Preceding her in death and her daughter Regina Bryant, (siblings) John, James and Joseph Harrod and sister Gertrude Bolden. She leaves behind: daughter, Darlina Bryant; sister, Mary Osborne; grandsons, Hakin Bryant (Joy), Vernon Brooks (Jennifer), Andre Dunnock, Mark Dudley and Shykim Bryant; granddaughters, Ciji Barnes (Donte), Fatima Bryant and Jasmine Dunnock; sister-in-law, Atlean Bryant; a very special friend, Oliver Decater; great-grandson, Vernon Brooks III; great-granddaughter, Makaya Bryant; loving niece, Terry Prioleau; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ *To The Bryant Family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. 1Cor15:26 tells us about a time when the "last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". Please continue to draw close to the "God of all comfort" and he will give you the strength to get through this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Sincerely, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C.
