

Sylvia Ann Mattison

September 4, 1960 - October 9, 2002

Forty-two years and one month ago, a beautiful handful of dust was wrapped around an immortal soul and left at the home of Mrs. Carrie B. Nophlin and Mr. Major M. Mattison of Baltimore, Maryland. They named that bundle of joy Sylvia Ann Mattison, who was brought up in a loving home with three brothers and three sisters. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools. She moved to Virginia in 1993. She professed Christ at an early age and rededicated her life to Him in 1993 when she joined the Household of Faith Church. She slowly slipped away from us on Tuesday, October 9, 2002. Our mother, Carrie B. Nophlin and her dad, Major M. Mattison, preceded her in death. Those left to mourn and cherish her memory are three sisters, Mrs. Faye Fulcher, Miss Hortensia Nophlin, both of Baltimore, Md. and Miss. Cecelia Mattison of Abingdon, Va.; three brothers, Mr. William Nophlin Sr., Mr. Tyrone Nophlin of Baltimore, Md. And Mr. Clyde Nophlin Sr. of Bristol, Va.; several nieces and nephews and several other relatives.
