

Sylvia Bullock

August 23, 1949 - February 28, 2013

SYLVIA MAE BULLOCK, daughter of the late Melvin Bert and MaryAlice Baker, was born on August 23, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on February 28, 2013.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At the age of twenty, she became employed by Church Home and Hospital as a file clerk/receptionist for over ten years. She was employed with Good Samaritan Hospital for eight years and finally with Johns Hopkins Bayview Hospital where she worked for over twenty-five years. During her employment with Johns Hopkins she received two star service awards for exceptional customer service.

Sylvia married Allen Bullock on May 23, 1984. Sylvia gave her life to Christ in April of 1988 when she joined The United Baptist Church. Sylvia grew up in East Baltimore on Rutland Avenue where she was loved by all those whom she befriended. After her friendships grew with a few of them on Rutland Avenue, they named themselves "The Rutland Avenue Crew."

When you were in her presence, you needed to brace yourself because she would have you laughing until you were in tears; and her smile would brighten up your day.

Sylvia loved her family and friends. Her brother-in-law, Ralph Hall would teased and joked with her; they were hilarious. Sylvia loved shopping, football and basketball; but most of all, she loved to read. When we did not hear from her, we knew she had been home reading books. She has read over 5,000 books, maybe more.

Sylvia leaves to mourn: her husband, Allen Bullock; two sisters, Carolyn Hall and Roxanne K. Burroughs; mother-in-law, Pauline Bullock; sister-in-law, Lorraine Mitchell; three brothers-in-law, Ralph Hall, Charles Mitchell and Ronald Scott; aunt, Rosa Johnson; uncle-in-law, Aaron Johnson; two first cousins, Wendell Johnson and Joyce Ann McNeill; nephew, Jeremiah B. Conway; two godchildren, Cheryl Renee Thomas and Darrius Audie Stevenson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *To the family of Sylvia Bullock:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). My name is Norman Morton of Arlington, Va. I remember a very nice Sylvia Bullock of Baltimore about 20 years ago. I think she had nerve damage to a leg. But she was a real trooper. We all liked her!
