

Sylvia J. Knox

October 7, 1930 - July 17, 2002

Sylvia J. Knox, daughter of the late Nancy Vivian Mills and Roland Goynes, was born on October 7, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on July 17, 2002 after a short stay. She received her education at Douglass high School and later received a GED. She also attended CCB for lab technician and office associate. By trade she was a cosmetologist and did hair for many years as a trade and favors for family members. Every holiday little girls were heard crying in the kitchen for beauty's sake. She married Harry Williams and of that union Nancy was born. From a later union to Aubrey Calvin Knox, a son was born of the same name. She practiced as a Catholic and as a Baptist for many, many years. Saint Jude was her favorite Patron. Sylvia enjoyed many gourmet tastes and out of the way places from Lexington market to Canoe Lake at Druid Hill Park. Irish folk music and Motown were played in her house with equal ease. She loved to read as well as sew and go to horse races. Because of an earlier illness, Sylvia retired from family social gatherings. She leaves to mourn: one sister, Pearl R. Scroggins; two children, Nancy and Aubrey; eight grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, many nieces and nephews, a boat load of cousins and a host of in-laws and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Sylvia J. Knox

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ He healeth the broken hearted...Psalm 147:3 Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Life is a play of contrasts. Sometimes you need the shadow to know the light.##imported-begin##Brenda Holmes##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM