“ My condolences to the family. Our family finds much solace and comfort from the loving promises in the Bible. I would like to share such comfort with you. I am amazed at how long Miss Ali lived. Even still death is always an enemy which seperates loved ones. May you find comfort in John 5:28,29: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May this promise strengthen you in the days ahead.###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy on the loss of your loved one. I find much comfort from Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May you find solace in these words in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Monica Rasaki##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to your family.I did not know Ms.Ali, but I wanted to share some comforting words from Jehovah God found in the bible at Rev.21:3,4 that says; "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say;look! The tent'of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them.(4) And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more,neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. the former things have passed away." I hope this will give you some comfort in your time of lost.##imported-begin##Mrs. Roseborough##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia##imported-end##

“ Dear Family & Friends, please accept my deepest sympathy for your great loss. I can only imagine how special Ms. Ali was. No doubt she had a wealth of knowledge, life skills and wisdom. It is truly rare to read of ones who has lived as long as your dear one has. I personally have a special place in my heart for older ones because they can teach us so much if we would just listen. I can imagine a whole host of stories and experiences she shared as well. Even though I didn't know her personally, I'm sure she was a jewel. If I may, I'd like to share some words of comfort from the bible. Our Loving Heavenly Father promises us at Isaiah 26:19: "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." He promises also at Isaiah 25:8: He will actually swallow up death forever..." For those who has aged, He will according to Job 33:25: "Let his flesh become fresher than in youth; Let him return to the days of his youthful vigor." How encouraging and comforting. Ms. Ali will live again here on earth, she will never have to die again and she will return back to her earlier days. This is the hope for mankind; not that we have to die in order to see our loved ones again, but they will be resurrected back to life with us. Almighty God did this for His son, Jesus and promises to do the same for us. Please compare these scriptures to your copy of the bible to see these wonderful truths firsthand and have hope. Your family is in my prayers.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sympathy during this difficult time. We can find comfort in the promise of the resurrection. Jesus said at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that excercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Knowing that we have the opportunity to see our loved ones again should really fill us with the strength to endure and to find out how we can be part of this wonderful prospect.##imported-begin##April Robinson##imported-end##

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states "God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore." How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God's promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God's promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
