

Sylvia Delores Lee

May 18, 1945 - July 28, 2019

SYLVIA D. LEE, born to the late Virginia Lee Stokes and Hallie Lee, entered this world on May 18, 1945 and departed this life on July 28, 2019. She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Carver High School.

Sylvia worked as a seamstress for various clothing companies in the Baltimore area before retiring. She loved to watch old movies and listen to all the old R&B music. She would bake a cake if you needed one for any occasion without any hesitation. She had a love for children, and she treated each one she encountered as her own.

She was preceded in death by her parents and loving daughter Utrina Lee, her brothers Ralph Lee and Ronald Singletary, sister Sarah Lee and other siblings in North Carolina, and her best friends Ms. Dee Dee and Ms. Delores (Patsy) Pearsall.

Though the presence of someone so dear is no more, precious memories are left in the hearts of many who loved her including her sons, Antione Givens, Roberto Johnson (Antoinette) and Mark Johnson; grandchildren, Christina Day, Dominique R. Johnson, August Johnson, Cerria Williams, Christian Ryan; and one sister, Rose Ferguson; two brothers, George Lee and Harold Lee; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and many friends, including those friends at Marlborough who were almost like family till the very end
