June 24, 1947 - July 10, 2007

Sylvia Mae Ervin, daughter of the late Robert Ervin Sr. and Equlear Mobley Ervin, was born June 24, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed from this life on July 10, 2007 after a lengthy illness. She received her education from the Baltimore City Public School System. Sylvia was a very kind and loving person to people of all walks of life who referred to her as my auntie. Children were very special to her and she meant their needs gladly. Sylvia was very family orientated. She loved her sister Florence Gee whom she refers to as a mother figure. Sylvia also felt a sense of love and protection from her brothers. She had a special relationship with her brother-in-law, Roosevelt Gee. Sylvia loved to cook and create a family atmosphere for love ones and friends. She especially loved and cared for children. No child was neglected around Sylvia. James Smith joined the path of Sylvia in 1985 and they were together until she departed from this life. Smitty, ad Sylvia called him, was the love of her life. They spent 22 years together. Sylvia and Smitty were blessed with a son, whom they adopted at 18 months old, named Antowan. Sylvia had eight brothers and one sister; Roosevelt Ervin, King George Ervin, Michel Ervin, Thomas Lee Ervin, Florence Gee and Clemm Ervin preceded her in death. “ To the family of Sylvia M. Ervin I just read about the recent death of your love one. I am deeply concerned about the sorrow and distress that you must be experiencing. I have some GOOD NEWS to share with your regarding loss. The Bible promises us that we will have the opportunity to see our dear love ones again. At John 5:28, 29 Jesus Christ assures us that “everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out”. The promise of a resurrection is held out to all those falling asleep in death (Acts 24:15). Jehovah God has promised obedient mankind at Revelation 21:1-4 that very soon pain, sickness and yes even death will be no more, because according to 1John 4:8 “God is love”. I sincerely hope these words brought your family comfort##imported-begin##Louise Hibbler##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my condolences to Ms. Sylvia's family and friends. The loss of a dear loved one is very painful and difficult to bear; that's why the Bible calls death an enemy at 1Corinthians 15:26. And God, in his loving kindness, will do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes. Revelation 21:3,4. It is my sincere hope this will comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I just read about the recent passing of your loved one. I offer my condolences to you all. There is terrible sorrow associated with the death of a loved one. Thankfully, we have a loving father above who cares about our sorrow, and he promises to bring an end to all sickness and death shortly. Daniel 12:2 reminds us: "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Jesus also likened death to sleep, because when his friend Lazarus died, Jesus stated at John 11:11, "Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep." So as the account goes on to say, Jesus ressurected Lazarus from the dead. Then he promises us at John 5:28,29 that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; to a ressurection of life." May it comfort you to know that one day Sylvia will live again in peaceful conditions. I pray that these bible scriptures will comfort you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
