

Sylvia Miles

October 16, 1952 - October 17, 2016

Sylvia Mae Miles, daughter of the late Elijah Harvey and Virginia Vereen was born on October 16, 1952. She departed this life suddenly just one day after her 64th birthday on October 17, 2016.

She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools and Westside Skill Center where she studied nursing. Upon completion of her education she became employed by Baltimore City Public Schools where she worked for six years before leaving to pursue a new career that she LOVED with Clinical Associates where she was employed for many years before falling ill.

Sylvia was loved by everyone and so was her cooking, her kind heart and love for others made everyone feel like you were part of her family.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her longtime beau, Herbert "Bucky" Jones; five loving sons, Donald Miles, Robert Miles, Melvin Darden, Eugene Darden and Daniel Harvin Jr.; one sister, Theresa Mason; four brothers, Walter Miles, David Vereen, Rodney Vereen and Vernon Vereen; two daughters-in-law, fourteen grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives

“ I remember you way back when I was a little girl. You, my mom and my aunt Lily use to play cards and go dancing a lot. I last seen you at mom house due to us losing a loved one. I will always remember you. I love you as if you was my own aunt. RIP truly missed but never would be forgotten
