

Sylvia Mozella Moore

February 24, 1934 - October 22, 2009

SYLVIA MOZELLA MOORE went to be with her Heavenly Father on Thursday, October 22, 2009. She passed away at Blue Point Nursing Home after a long struggle with Alzheimer's disease. Born to Lily and Roosevelt Vereen in Harry, South Carolina, she was educated in the Harry County Public School System. Because Sylvia longed for better opportunity, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1955 after marrying her late husband, Gary Moore Sr. She was preceded in death by her two daughters, Carolyn Hayden and Pamela Moore. Sylvia worked as a cook in the restaurant industry until her retirement. Many knew her for her hard work ethic, love for her family and southern cooking. She enjoyed the time spent with her family during the holidays and would spend days preparing foods like her well-loved potato salad, homemade cornbread stuffing and sweet potato pie. She stayed strong for her family, providing support for many of her grandchildren. As a member of Bethel Missionary Baptist Church, she was a God-fearing woman and put all of her faith in her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She leaves to mourn: two sons, Gary Moore Jr. and Michael Moore; four daughters, Shirley Davenport, Annie Morris, Angela Moore and Janice Moore; brother, Herbert Vereen; sister, Katie Blannon; sister-in-law, Mary Vereen; brother-in-law, Robert Blannon Sr.; two sons-in-law, Robert Davenport and Charles Morris; forty-six grandchildren, thirty-two great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Moore's family. The loss of a loved one can be painful that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 states,"many asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
