

Sylvia Marie Smalls

March 7, 1929 - January 21, 2013

On Monday January 21, 2013 Our Father whispered gently as he called his daughter home. He knew his child was tired and ready for her journey to her heavenly home.

Sylvia Marie Smalls was born on March 7, 1929 in Baltimore City to the late Pleasant Imes and Sarah Rose Houston. Sylvia was baptized and accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. Sylvia went to Anne Arundel Public Schools and enjoyed her years as a student.

Sylvia retired from the Rouse Company as a custodial engineer supervisor while a very young woman. She was married to James Johnson Sr. and out of that union two sons were born James Johnson Jr. and Eric Johnson. Later she divorced, met and married Moses Smalls and out of that union came Kirk Smalls and Craig Smalls.

Sylvia and her family moved to the Anne Arundel community located in Pumphrey Maryland and there she attended church at St. Johns Methodist Church.

In Sylvia's early years, she enjoyed taking her sons crabbing and fishing, coming home to steam the crabs and cooking the fish and having a good time in her back yard.

Sylvia loved to go to Atlantic City on bus trips and playing the lottery. Her favorite numbers were 307, 718, 1711 and 1717. Sylvia was a strong and independent woman. She loved her sons dearly.

Sylvia leaves to cherish her memory brothers Remus Houston and Bernard

Houston and her two sisters Margarite James and Lydia Scott. Sylvia also leaves behind her eldest son James Johnson Jr. along with his wife Debra Johnson; her next eldest son Eric Johnson and his wife Muriel Johnson; along with the two youngest sons Kirk Smalls and his wife Wanda Smalls and Craig Smalls and his wife Felice Smalls; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

*I know you are going to a much better place
It happened so suddenly you were taken away from me.....*

*My memories of that special day we spent together watching the Ravens game cannot be washed away.
We laughed and gave each other high five when they scored a touchdown.
Although, I do not recall breaking the television.*

All I can remember is seeing the smile on your face...

We have had a lot of good times throughout the years, which is why today my eyes are filled with tears.

*You are now in God's arms and you are safe.
Never again will I see your smiling face, but this photograph in my mind of you will never be erased.*

*You were not only a grandmother, but a mother to me...
I will always remember hearing you say my name "Nikkie" or "Give Grandma some sugar"
My memories are keepsakes from which I'll never part
God has you in his keeping
I have you in my heart.
Although your presence is gone
And you cannot be touched
I thank God for the time we spent together and the memories
They will always mean so much.*

Love Nikkie
